

GKU CELEBRATES WORLD VEGETARIAN DAY

October 3: The college of hotel management of Guru Kashi University, Talwandi sabo, celebrated the world vegetarian day, today. Inaugurating the event, the managing director S. Sukhraj Singh Sidhu appreciated the new initiative and encouraged the students to try new innovative recipes.

The GKU vice Chancellor Col. Dr. B.S. Dhaliwal, Pro V.C. Dr. Jagpal Singh, Registrar Dr. Jagtar Singh Dhiman, Director Finance Dr. Narinder Singh, along with deans, directors and faculty members from various colleges, visited the stalls and relished the vegetarian preparations.

The dean of the college Chef Gaurav Khurana informed that on this event more than 100 recipes prepared by student were displays that included vegetarian preparation in Indian, dessert, Chinese and continental styles. He also shared that more such programmes will be planned in future as well.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP AT GURU KASHI UNIVERSITY

October 13: Cultural and Social Welfare committee of Guru Kashi University organized, a blood donation camp In the campus, Mr. Varinder Singh (SDM) Talwandi Sabo appeared as chief guest along with S.Sukhraj Singh Sidhu (MD) to motivate the Donors. Dr. Miyankjot Singh and his team from Civil Hospital, Bathinda provided the whole medical assistance along with the university medical staff during this activity. As per the program coordinator and social welfare committee in charge Dr. Harpreet Kaur, approximately 150 units were donated by the staff and students. Chief guest Mr. Varinder Singh highly appreciated the activity by Guru Kashi University for the social cause. The GKU Vice Chancellor Dr. Dhaliwal thanked chief guest to grace occasion and also said thankful words to Bathinda civil Hospital team and for donors as well.

Dr. Jagpal Singh(Pro Vice Chancellor), Dr. Jagtar Singh Dhiman (Registrar), Dr. Sukhdev Singh, Prof. Barjinder Singh Maan (COE), Gurdev Singh Kotfatta, Dr.Ashwani Sethi, Dr. Amit Tuteja and other deans Director will also present in the camp.

PHYSIOTHERAPY OPD UNIT INAUGURATED AT GKU

October 13: The GKU Vice Chancellor Col. Dr. B.S. Dhaliwal and Dr. Ravinder Sumal, Dean Phy. Edu. College and Director Sports, inaugurated the Physiotherapy OPD

UNIT in Physical Education College at GKU. This is the matter of pride and happiness for the GKU staff, students and surrounding villages that they will get solution to all physiotherapy related issues at their door steps.

Dr. Manmeen Kaur and Dr. Gursharn Singh in charges of this Unit said that they will provide the treatments related to condition like after fracture osteoarthritis, back pain, cervical pain, shoulder pain and knee pain, hemiplegic, paraplegia, spots injuries etc. Dr. Ravi said that the treatment will be done by electrotherapy machines (IRR, TENS, Muscle stimulator and Paraffin wax therapy) and exercise therapy (Swiss Ball, re-education mats etc).

S.Sukhraj singh Sidhu (MD) Congratulated everyone associated with the newly inaugurated OPD Unit and advice the faculty to open it for the staff, student and for the public also.

Col. Dr. Dhaliwal also assured every sort of support in future for the smooth and up to date functioning of this OPD UNIT.

GKU Organizes Fresher's Party

October 16: Engineering College and Physical Education College of Guru Kashi University organized a fresher's party in the Campus to welcome the new students. The function was organized in the main Auditorium in GKU Campus. Dr. Jagtar Singh Dhiman (Registrar) Guru Kashi University appeared as Chief Guest in the function. He advised the students to put maximum efforts in the studies to scale the heights and assured every sort of support in academics and research from University side for their higher education.

Dr.G.S.Brar (Dean Engg.) & Dr.Ravinder Sumal (Dean Physical College) shared that various cultural items Gidha, Bhangra, Solo dance, Group dance, Skits and Songs were presented by the senior students to welcome the newer ones.

A modeling show was also organized on this occasion. Prof. Sukhdevinder Singh Kaurra (PRO), Prof. Jaspreet Kaur, Prof. Gurpreet Kaur were the judges for the fashion show participants. On the basis of ramp modeling, dressing sense and question/answers rounds, Ms. Ekta and Mr Kamalpreet Singh for the Engineering College and Ms. Sukhmaninderpal Kaur and Brijesh Kumar from Phy. education college declared Mr & Ms fresher's 2017.

The GKU Vice Chancellor Col. Dr. B.S. Dhaliwal welcomed new students and appreciated the efforts of staff and students of engineering & Phy. Education College. Prof. Sarabjeet Singh Gaggowal, Prof. Mokhibur Hussain, Prof. Harpreet Kaur, Prof. Pankaj, Prof. K.P.S Mahi & Madam Surinder Kaur Mahi did praise worthy efforts being coordinators of the fresher party.

GKU Students Bring Laurels' in Sports

October 23: GKU students brought laurels in different sports national championship in recent past.

Dr. Ravinder Sumal, Director sports and Dean college of physical education said that M.Sc (Vegetable Science) student secured 2nd position in UT shooting championship held at Chandigarh in 10 meter air pistol category. On the other hand in Punjab state championship at Mansa B.Ped students Gursewak Singh & Iqbal Singh snatched silver and bronze medals in 10 meter air pistol.

Apart from these, In the National Taekwondo championship Yadwinder Kaur emerged as gold medalist in 62 kg category and B.Ped student Husna Secured Bronze medal in 48 kg category. Coach Sh. Hardeep Singh guided the students during their practice sessions and in the tournament as well.

The Vice-chancellor GKU, Col.Dr. Bhupinder Singh Dhaliwal congratulated staff and winner students and advice the other students to take participate maximum in sports for the overall development of the personality.

Fresher's Party for Applied Science

October 26: College Applied Science of Guru Kashi University organized a fresher's party in the Campus to welcome the new students. The function was organized in the main Auditorium in GKU Campus. Dr. Jagtar Singh Dhiman (Registrar) Guru Kashi University was the Chief Guest in the function.

He advised the students to put maximum efforts in the studies to scale the heights and assured every support in academics and research. He said that the participation in extra curried activities help the students to develop the personality and be good human beings.

Dr. G.S. Brar (Dean Engg.) shared that various cultural items Solo dance, Fashion show, Ramp Walk, Group Dance and Songs were presented by the senior students to welcome the new ones. A modeling show was also organized on this occasion and the winners were awarded. The GKU Vice Chancellor Col. Dr. B.S. Dhaliwal and Pro Vice Chancellor Dr. Jagpal Singh welcomed new students and appreciated the efforts of staff and students of college of applied science. Dr. Satish kautish thanked the chief guest, other dignitaries' and students for their presence and conveyed best wishes to new students.

Recognition for GKU Professor Dr. Daljeet Singh

October 26: Dr. Daljeet Singh, Head, Department of Vegetable Science at Guru Kashi University has been bestowed with "Bharat Ratna" Dr. Abdul kalam gold medal award by the Global Economic Progress & Research Association (GEPR) in recognition of his outstanding Research and Education achievements in the area of vegetable science. He received the award in GEPR National Unity Conference held at Chennai on 15th Oct 2017. Dr Singh is a renowned vegetable scientist who has worked for the improvement of important vegetables such as okra, onion, tomato, muskmelon, chillies, lettuce, carrot and bitter gourd releasing seven improved varieties in addition to recommending technology for their production. His recent areas of research interest is selecting superior varieties of quinoa in view of its extraordinary nutritional value, protected cultivation of high value vegetables, together with technology diffusion among Punjab farmers.

AKHAND PAATH AT GURU KASHI UNIVERSITY FOR "SARBAT DA BHALA"

October 28: The Akhand Path of Sri Guru Granth Sahib was started at Guru Kashi University (GKU) today for the welfare of all (Sarbat Da Bhalal). There was a huge gathering of staff and students on the campus from different colleges of the University. The Holy Bir was received by senior officers at the main entrance of the University and the sea of people gathered on the occasion showered floral petals. The procession rendered the campus a divine colour. There were chants of Bole So Nihal slogans and gurbani music on the campus. The campus was decorated profusely with rangolis, illuminations, buntings and floral carpets. It looked festive.

After the start of Akhand Paath in the big hall, there was a programme on Marshal Art Gatka. Earlier, the gatka demonstrations on the beat of heroism songs were given by boys and girls of various teams of GKU and Talwandi Sabo.

The Chief Guest, Mr Sukhraj Singh Sidhu, the Managing Director of the GKU, in his remarks, highlighted that Gatka is the blessings of the Guru and that GKU has led in reviving and popularizing this self-defense marshal art. He appreciated the GKU for its efforts in organizing the event and added that Akhand Path has been started to seek blessings of the Guru for the welfare of all and the glory (Charhdi kala) of Guru Kashi University. Present among others were the Vice Chancellor, Col Dr Bhupinder Singh Dhaliwal, Pro Vice Chancellor Dr Jagpal Singh, Registrar

Dr Jagtar Singh Dhiman, Director Finance Dr Narinder Singh, and other Deans/Directors/Officers of GKU.

Thanking the organizers for the humanitarian and divine event, the Vice Chancellor expressed that for righteous living such programs are often useful.

GKU OBSERVES NATIONAL INTEGRATION DAY WITH PATRIOTIC FERVOUR

October 31: The National Integration Day was observed today at Guru Kashi University (GKU) to mark the birth anniversary of Iron Man of India, Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel. On this occasion, the University Registrar, Dr Jagtar Singh Dhiman, read out the pledge in front of the portrait of Sardar Patel, which was read after him by all those present. Earlier the significance of the day was explained by him. The pledge taking ceremony was held in all the colleges of GKU where in faculty, students and staff took part overwhelmingly.

The college of Physical Education organized a programme "Run for Unity" wherein a large number of students and faculty participated. The students made human signs of unity and national integration.

Present among others were the Vice Chancellor, Col Dr Bhupinder Singh Dhaliwal, Pro Vice Chancellor Dr Jagpal Singh, Registrar Dr Jagtar Singh Dhiman, Director Finance

Dr Narinder Singh, and other Deans/Directors/Officers of GKU.

The Managing Director, S. Sukhraj Singh Sidhu said that the prevailing time demands that the patriotic fervour is instilled among our youth. Col (Dr) Dhaliwal exhorted the youth to work for the patriotic cause and return their dues to the nation.

The event witnessed the singing of the National Anthem.

Editorial Team:

Editor-in-Chief: Dr. Jagtar Singh Dhiman, Registrar, Guru Kashi University

Editor: Dr Shyamkiran Kaur, Assistant Professor, Department of English, UCBS&H, Guru Kashi University